ABOUT THIS OPPORTUNITY

We are Charmouth Village People. We organise activities in Charmouth for older people, currently emphasising our memory club, day outings, theatre visits, and social occasions. We have a web site and have been trying to find someone with the simple skills and creativity to make it much better. We are looking for enthusiasm and commitment from any age group. We have the content in pictures and stories but it doesn't currently find its way on to the site. We would also like links with other local websites. Could this be your project?
